

Dear Friend of Child Care:

Celebrate Westchester's wonderful early care and education community which prepares children for lifelong success and keeps the County working!

On Friday, June 6, 2008, the Child Care Council of Westchester will recognize exceptional individuals who have made outstanding contributions to our system of early care and education, which is so integral to the future and vitality of our county. This marks the 20th year of the Council's JOEY AWARDS, named after Joseph M. Ungaro, former Vice President of The Gannett Metro News Division and first President of the Board of Directors of the Child Care Council of Westchester, Inc. The Council will also present Champion of Child Care Awards, which debuted in 2003 to acknowledge Westchester's broad and expanding community support for early care and education.
