Bring on the Holidays! Creative Art Experiences for Preschoolers

The holiday season is upon us! Families are looking forward to precious hand-made gifts from their child. It is a wonderful tradition. However, does it ever feel like you are putting more work into the gift than the child? During this training, we will explore creative art experiences for preschoolers that will be unique to each child. Come find out how you can tap into the true creative process of your preschoolers this holiday season. You will come away with a toolbox full of ideas that will be cherished by your families for years to come.

Be Informed: Your Role in Providing Competent Supervision of Children

Did you know that OCFS has recently sent out a statement regarding their concerns about supervision of children in child care programs? In the blink of an eye, a child in your program could become injured or lost. Keeping children safe is your most important responsibility! How can you watch all these small children all of the time and still provide an exciting learning environment? What can you do to make sure all children are safe at all times? Come learn ways to provide children with competent supervision that you can make to enhance your program's supervision of children. We will also examine the OCFS regulations on supervision. You will breathe easier and keep children safer.

Modality - Age: ALL

ACE (Adverse Childhood Experiences) Institute Level 201

This training aims to broaden the state's understanding of ACE's and their impact on young children, their families, and the field of early childhood education. The 201-Level ACE Institute training for Child Care Providers and Educators is the second training in a series designed to broaden the awareness of the effects of ACE's. This workshop begins to unpack science-aligned interventions for both children and adults to create regulated spaces in child care programs. Providers will practice the key relational skills of co-regulation and reframing of behavior to strengthen a provider's response to children's stress behavior.

Modality - Age: ALL

Training Categories: OCFS (10) CBK (1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6)

Code: 21216

Tuesday, December 14, 10:00am – 12:00pm

Gender & School Age Children

During their early years, children begin to develop a conception of themselves based on gender, sex, sexuality, and the community around them. We will look at gender development in young children and how rigid gender roles and stereotypes can limit all children's growth and self-expression. We will explore what this means for the children and the people who care for them. We will also discuss gender stereotypes that can be harmful and what that means for your program. We will explore how to create an inclusive space that supports all children and a variety of gender expressions.

Me & My World! 21st Century Social Studies for Preschool Children

Preschoolers are naturally curious about the world around them. From birth, they begin exploring their world. At each stage of early development, young children look around and try to make sense of their environment. They gradually learn more about their community and come to see themselves as citizens of a much larger world. Helping children become aware of the world around them, and how they fit into it, will help them to become active members of the 21st century and a much larger world.
