SEPTEMBER TRAININGS

Tuesday, September 14, 6:30pm – 8:30pm

Be Informed! Your Role in Providing Competent Supervision of Children

Did you know that OCFS has recently sent out a statement regarding their concerns about supervision of children in child care programs? In the blink of an eye, a child in your program could become injured or lost. Keeping children safe is your most important responsibility! How can you watch all these small children all of the time and still provide an exciting learning environment? What can you do to make sure all children are safe at all times? Come learn ways to provide children with competent supervision that you can make to enhance your program's supervision of children. We will also examine the OCFS regulations on supervision. You will breathe easier and keep children safer.

Separation Anxiety: What to Expect and How to Help

Comforting crying children is a normal part of early care and education. However, the crying is different when it comes to “separation anxiety.” Do you feel helpless and find yourself wondering how to help? How do you help a child who cries every morning when his/her family drops them off? Why do some children have a harder time separating than others? This training will answer these questions and more, so that the transition from home to school will be easiest for families, children and yourself.
